What's on offer?

Foxton – The gateway to the central North Island

1.5 hours from Wellington and 40 minutes from Palmerston North and Whanganui.

State of the art venue

Te Awahou Nieuwe Stroom is uniquely positioned in a stunning environment between Foxton's historic Main Street and the Manawatū River Loop. Its striking modern architecture, inviting spaces and incredible views make it one of the region's premier event locations.

We offer free WiFi, access to large screens and conference technology, easy access parking and onsite catering.

Team activities

If you want to get your team into a new environment for creative thinking or team-building activity away from the office we have you covered. Our facility is situated in a spectacular new tourism precinct and offers an array of hands-on activities, cultural experiences and access to nearby walkways and cycleways.

Te Awahou Riverside Cultural Park and surrounds

Te Awahou Riverside Cultural Park is Foxton's multicultural tourism and community centre.

Just off State Highway One, right by the Manawatū River, you'll find exhibitions, shopping, library, art, cafés, interactive displays, free WiFi, play areas, and more.

Enjoy an exciting mix of recreation with a special emphasis on Te Awahou – Foxton heritage and environment, Māori and Dutch life and culture, and the people and stories with links to all these.

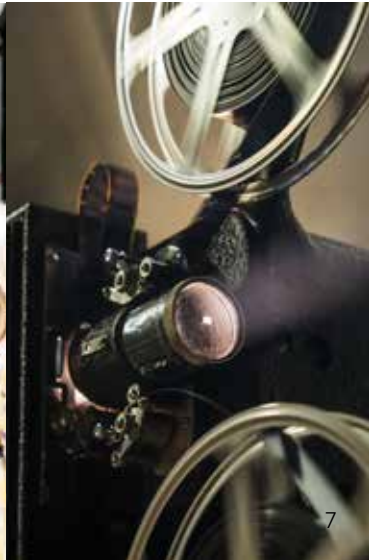

More Foxton attractions

Te Awahou Riverside Cultural Park is the gateway to Horowhenua and Manawatū.

Our district offers visitors a multitude of experiences including walkways and cycleways, stunning beaches, a river estuary with Ramsar World Heritage status for its unique bird species and environment, diverse heritage attractions and exceptional local cuisine.

For more information contact enquiries@teawahou.com or (06) 363 5571.

Te Awahou Riverside Cultural Park

From the park there is easy access to a range of local attractions such as MAVtech (Museum of Audio Visual Technology), Wind Warrior Kite Sports at Foxton Beach, Off the Loop Wakeboard Park, historic sites and second-hand shops.

There is easy access to walkways, the river and estuary (which has international wetland Ramsar status for its unique habitat and birdlife) and Foxton Beach.

Shopping

Foxton offers an array of unique and quirky shops to make for an enjoyable shopping experience.

Main Street is filled with a variety of stores offering second-hand treasures, locally-sourced products and high-quality gift shops.

Check out our gift shops onsite in the park at the Dutch Market and Te Awahou Nieuwe Stroom.

Tours

We can co-ordinate tours of Piriharakeke and Oranjehof by arrangement.

Food

We have two cafés available in the park – Millside and the Dutch Oven. Catering is available at your own expense.

Parking

Free all-day parking right outside the venue makes for a stress-free experience.
